Breeze Bettis

I am a Dreamer who loves stories and sharing my own. I am a sister, aunt, teacher, and friend. I am co-founder in She Dreams ministry and have a passion for women and girls of all ages to know their part in this Story is important. I reside in Hayesville, NC and attend Village Church. I love to spoil my nephews, travel, and hang out with my friends.

Diana Brown

My husband Andrew and I have 4 children, all through adoption. Lilly, 12, came home from Kazakhstan at 12 months. Asher and Will, 9 and 6, came home from Ethiopia in 2010. Ellie, 22 mos, just came home from Ethiopia in March! We also have 5 sponsor children and consider them part of our family as well. I grew up in Clay County and never dreamed God would build my family through adoption, but God had much bigger and better dreams for me than I had for myself. My dream is not only to help orphaned and vulnerable children, but to help others become aware of the orphan crisis that exists today and give them practical ways they can be involved locally and globally.

Kristi Cook

My husband, Darren and I have three beautiful children, Katy, Mason and Adam. We live in Hayesville, NC, and my husband is the Pastor of Vengeance Creek Church. I have a burden for families, particularly mothers who struggle with their own worth and identity. Being the wife of a pastor, mother of three school aged kids, and a full-time employee, I understand how mothers can reach the end of their rope. My dream is to encourage women, especially mothers, to seek God's will for their lives. I want women to recognize their worthiness, embrace their strengths and weaknesses and use them to be the best they can be. My vision is to help other women understand that we are all fearfully and wonderfully made in the eyes of our God, and that he has created each of us for a purpose!

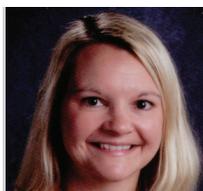

Kelly Crawford

Wife of Kevin and mother of three. I knew God had a calling for me at a very early age even though I could not define what the calling was exactly. As I continued to draw, paint, recreate every magazine cover, comic strip, redesign labels and product packages I realized He blessed with me with the gift of art and design. I see things a little differently than others. I want to encourage women of all ages to see the beauty in themselves. To reach for the stars and follow their dreams, to find their gifts and talents and use them to glorify God.

Brooke Leatherwood

Mother to Amber, Vickie, Kali, Ashlyn & Avery who are My Blessings and wife to my hubby Frank who is My Happy! We live in beautiful Clay County NC where I love to spend time with friends & family. Something God has been teaching me along the way, is that He created me uniquely for two reasons. 1- is to be a wife to my "Happy" and 2- is to be a mother to my "Blessings." Everything else that I do, someone else can and will do better! I don't always do everything right all the time.....as I am learning as I grow..... still I pray that my family will one day look back and know that I didn't pretend to have a perfect life, but provide a life filled with love! Because Love over time matters most!

Heather Plemmons

My husband, Chad, and I, along with our kids, Maggie and Nathan, are members of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church where he also serves as the Associate Pastor for Discipleship and Education. We are blessed to have been a part of this church family for nearly 15 years and we are excited to see what God is preparing us for in the days ahead. My involvement in She Dreams stems from my desire to see women discover their God-given spiritual gifts and to see them incorporate them into their lives.
